

Basics

ore the ribbon, navigate around a worksheet and select data.

as this has all the available product features, but for the hands-on labs we will be using the free ‘Excel for the web’ version as this is available to this version, it is recommended that you use Excel for the web for the hands-on labs as the lab instructions specifically refer to this version, and there